Terms of Representation

1. All Invoices for Services and Expenses are payable within 15 days of receipt unless alternative written arrangements have been made.
2. All Major Credit Cards are accepted.
3. Any Client who is in arrearage for over 90 days will, unless other written arrangements have been made, be deemed to authorize our withdrawal as counsel in any or all matters for which we represent them to be exercised at our discretion. Client will be charged for any costs incident to withdrawal as counsel. All fees in arrearage for over 90 days may be transferred to an outside collection firm.
4. Client should be aware that once an appearance is made on behalf of Client, approval of the court or regulatory body is generally required for withdrawal.
5. As long as we are acting as attorneys for a client in any matter for which we are waiting specific instructions from a client, it is our general policy to take the minimum necessary steps necessary to avoid forfeiture or abandonment of the matter involved unless specifically instructed to the contrary, or unless we inform the client that an advance payment is required. This may include requests for extension, and payment of various fees and other costs for which the client will be charged. This policy should not be considered or relied upon as a commitment to the client.
6. Proposals or estimates which require more than nominal research or inquiry will be billed at the appropriate hourly rate.
7. This Schedule of Services and Fees may be revised without notice.
